WHAT MAKES YOU LAUGH OUT LOUD? "Eddie Izzard. He's hilarious!"

BEST THING YOU COOK: "Weight Watchers recipes. I'm probably best at rice pudding. But I love surprising people that what they're eating is Weight Watchers food."

SOMETHING YOU'D LIKE TO LEARN TO DO: "To be a better singer. And I'm pursuing that!"

SOMETHING ABOUT YOU PEOPLE WOULD BE SURPRISED TO KNOW: "That I'm a complete sucker for a weepy chick flick. And all the Academy Award-nominated movies—I try to see them all before the Oscars."

BEST THING ABOUT ABQ IN MARCH: "It starts to really be spring. And I'm always fighting myself not to steal fruit tree blossoms that happen to be hanging over public sidewalks—love having them in our home."

FAVORITE WAY OF GIVING BACK: "As a small-town girl from Ohio, I was raised to be helpful. I was on the board of Cuidando Los Ninos, I'm a volunteer Faith Care Ministries

Leader and Stephen Ministry Leader at my church, and I support Cuidando Los Ninos, March of Dimes, the Heart Association and Rotary."

FIRST THING YOU'D DO AFTER WINNING THE LOTTERY: "I'd take a trip to Australia. I've never been there, and no one has ever hired me to work there—it's the only continent, other than Antarctica, where I haven't gone to work! I was working abroad nearly every month last year. I'm frequently jet-lagged."

MOST RECENT INDULGENCE: "An overnight at Ten Thousand Waves in Santa Fe... and I'm still a wet noodle after the hot tub, facial and massage. My husband is laughing at the change in my personality from all that pampering."

FAVORITE THING ABOUT YOUR JOB: "Helping businesses make more money. It's important that businesses have an up-to-date approach to selling. It's gratifying to help people understand what causes others to trust in business situations, what to measure to be sure their selling effort is state-of-the-art, and the optimal way to structure conversations with prospective clients."
